

SAC Minutes 12/2/24

Start 6:04pm Total in attendance 7

1. Welcome & Opening

Introductions

2. Approval of October Minutes

Lansky motioned to approve. Fleming 2nd the motion.

3. Book Reconsideration Review

No update.

4. State of the School

- Principal: Construction on going. South gym moving along on reconstruction. No timeline for completion. Cannot use back field. Track will be repaired. North gym has damage. Floor buckling. Basketball rescheduled - all away games & practice. North floor repair will start in February after wrestling. Roof work done. Construction meeting December 3, 2024. Academic calendar adjusted for hurricane days. Three weeks to end of semester. Exam schedule on the website. Wednesday, December 4th is School Choice night. Friday, December 6th state semi-finals for football. Two instructional vacancies. Math & Social Studies. Both teachers retiring in January.
- Non-instructional: Counselors meeting with freshmen. Big Bank Theory.
- Teacher: Progress Reports sent out before Thanksgiving. Testing. Semester exams. Marine Science, Guy Harvey has lots going on. NHS Thursday, December 5th. Vaping awareness. Medical Academy went to MTC for seniors NCAC last week, medical, culinary academy. Homecoming was good. Football is doing well. Kids are focused. Girl's weightlifting is going on along with soccer & wrestling. Boys' basketball has practice at Bayshore & King. Girls' basketball is practicing at Lincoln & Lee. Jordan's Joy toy outreach is going on.
- Student: Jordan's Joy toys for kids in hospitals. Teachers are competing for most collected toys. Football game on December 6th is red out. All students wear red.

5. ESOL Parent Presentation

There are about 150 ESOL students. Mr. Bragg teaches 4 courses. Wednesdays is ESOL tutoring from 2:30-3pm.

Mom who works at AAA & her daughter graduated from Manatee attended as a community partner. She wanted to share AAA's Senior Promise, no drink at prom.

Meeting adjourned at 6:40pm. Next meeting is February 3rd at 6pm.