Homecoming Dress Code and Code of Conduct

Dress Code

- Dress is semi-formal.
- 1) Dresses, 2) skirts with blouses, 3) one-piece jumpsuits/rompers, and 4) dress pants with a belt and tucked in dress shirt and tie are appropriate options for attire.
- Clothing must cover all undergarments.
- Dress shoes are required.

Items Not Allowed

- Clothing that is excessively form-fitting or excessively baggy/oversized.
- Skirts, dresses, and jumpsuits/rompers shorter than the tips of the fingers when extended straight at one's side.
- Clothing with holes.
- Midriff exposing clothing, including cutouts and two-piece outfits that expose the midriff.
- Backless tops that drop below the navel.
- Clothing that is see through or sheer (except for the back of a blouse/dress, not to drop below the navel).
- Deep V-necks extending below the breast bone.
- Jeans, denim bottoms, shorts, cargo shorts.
- Hats
- Sunglasses
- Slides, Flip-flops, sneakers

Any students who have questions about the dress code or want to have an outfit pre-approved may bring the outfit to school administration for review.

School administrators will make the final decision on appropriateness of student attire. If a student pushes the limits of the dress code, they risk being turned away from the dance.

Conduct

- BRHS students must present a ticket and ID at the door. Tickets will be sold in advance at school. Tickets may be sold at the door. Tickets will not be sold after 9:00 PM and admittance will not be allowed after 10:00 PM.
- The dress code must be followed prior to entering and for the duration of the dance.
- Once a student leaves the dance, they may not return.
- Dancing must remain appropriate and safe. Promiscuous dancing, slam dancing, and rowdiness will not be tolerated.
- Chairs are not allowed on the dance floor.
- Guests are not allowed.
- There is zero tolerance for possession or use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, or other illegal substances at all school-sponsored functions. Students caught with or under the influence of any of these substances will be subject to school discipline consequences and will be remanded to law enforcement.
- Any students who do not abide by the above Dress Code or Code of Conduct may be immediately dismissed from the dance.
- No refunds for tickets purchased will be issued.
- Braden River High School is not responsible for any thefts or damage to personal items.
