

EARN A FREE BOOK FROM FREEDOM'S BOOKWORM VENDING MACHINE

For JANUARY, the Freedom Reading Incentive Program for our K-5 students will be completing the current challenge on Beanstack called ~Reading is SNOW much fun~. K-2ND GRADE need to earn 210 minutes and 3rd -5th GRADE need to earn 400 minutes to get a coin.

If you are new to Freedom, here is how the program will work:

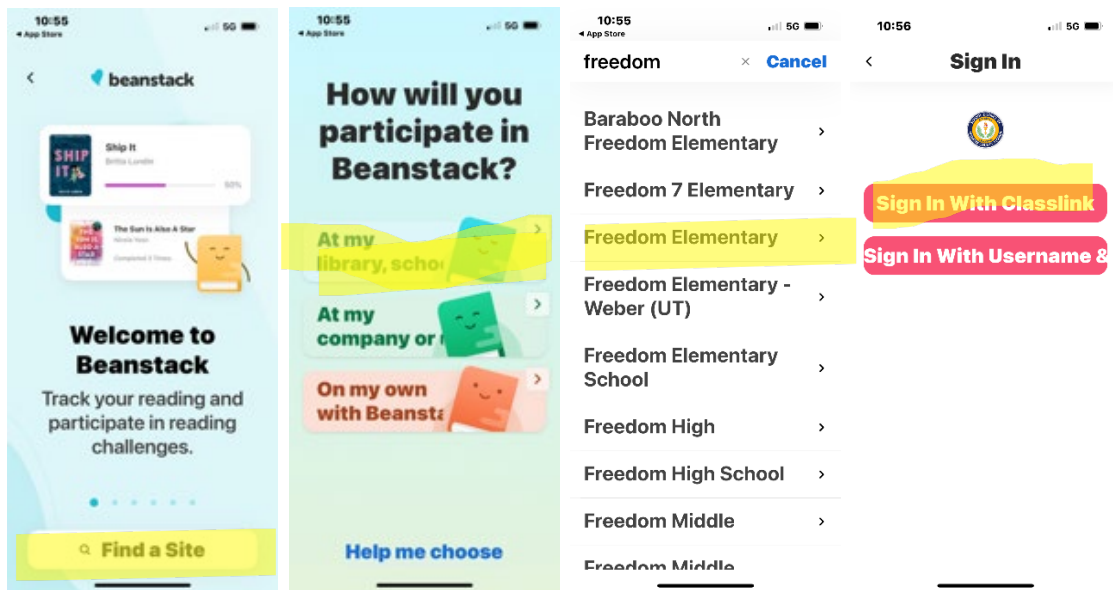

- This challenge will require student to log reading minutes on Beanstack. It is an icon on their Single Sign On page and can be accessed from school or home. (MYSDMC SSO)
- Student can login to SSO/Classlink using their Student ID and password (you can get this from the teacher)

- Click on Beanstack icon.

- There is also an app available for devices. Check your APP store or try this link <https://landing.beanstack.com/mobile-app>
- If you choose to use the app, be sure to connect it to the student account. Follow the yellow highlighted steps below:

(Classlink will be the student's ID number and password. You can get this from the teacher.)

- Once the challenge is completed, the student will receive a coin for a free book from the bookworm vending machine!
- Please encourage your students to keep a book in their backpack.

Please refer to our school's website or my Freedom Media Center Facebook page for more details and to see pictures. For questions, please email me at carlisle@manateeschools.net or call me at 941/708-4990 x59014.

Signed with much excitement,
