READ EACH OF THE ITEMS BELOW. Check each box to indicate that you understand these guidelines.

- The student must have an unweighted GPA of 2.5 or higher and be on track to graduate.
- The student must maintain a good attendance and discipline record with the school and employer.
- Prior to the start of the school year, the student must have paid employment at an OJT eligible job that follows federal laws concerning payroll withholdings & child labor and that also carries workers' compensation & liability insurance.
- Students may not work under the direct supervision of a family member.
- All required paperwork will be handed out on the first day of class and must be submitted before the student can log works hours or leave campus for OJT.
- The student understands that this is a credit-earning course and that a grade will be issued for each OJT period. Failure to submit required paperwork (time cards, employer evaluations, etc.) or to follow district and state requirements will result in a failing course grade and removal from the OJT program.
