8/26/2019

Minutes

Handouts:

1. Agenda
2. Financial Report
3. Sugg SAC ByLaws

Agenda

1. Call to Order: 05:03PM
2. Introductions
3. SAC Reports
 - a. Old Business: No old business.
 - b. Attendance/SAC Roster: Recommendations to get more parents involved were discussed. Mr. Burkhart (parent task force) suggested looking at the district SAC plan for suggestions. Other options were changing the time. Provide more information, call-out, website.
 - c. Reviewed ByLaws: Statute has changed to 10 voting members. No other concerns were brought up about the bylaws.
 - d. Financial report: Mrs. McDonald discussed the current SAC budget and examples of how it was utilized last year. Current budget allocated is 1,458.33. Also discussed was the ability to help this budget through other grants (Title 1, TSSA, etc.). We also discussed an SRO allocation for training over the summer for certain items
 - e. School Grade: Current School Grade "B" was discussed. The SIP plan was relayed. Reminded attendees of our Learning Focused Lesson Plan model. Discussed our only sub-group that did not test well, which is the SWD group. We will remind teachers to follow accommodations and be cognizant of who those kids are. Our 10-day count adjustments are hoping to help address those needs. We are over 1000 kids. Also looking for us to be granted the plans for a new school to be built in the coming years.
4. Other Business: Community support, McTeacher Night for Business partner. CTSO, Career and Technical Service Association was discussed. They are having a meeting on 9/21 to help kick-off the year. United Way campaign is underway. Dress Down Day proceeds goes to United Way.
5. Adjournment: 5:40pm Next Meeting is 9/23/201

Respectfully Submitted,

Daniel E. Boyd
