Agenda Topics:

- Introduction of New Assistant Principal, Randy Stowers
- Saturday School/Club Excel Update
  - During School year, program is offered for grades 3,4, and 5
  - During the summer, we will have a program for K-2 students also
  - Had to cancel last weekend due to quarantine of some staff members
- Title I Parent Survey
  - 91 English surveys, 10 Spanish surveys – just over 20% of student population
  - If you haven't submitted a survey yet, please do so.
  - Important for us to receive the input so we know how we are doing
  - We are giving various incentives to parents for completing the surveys
- Testing: Benchmark, i-Ready, ACCESS
  - Benchmark testing is going on right now.
  - K-3 just finished iReady – mid year point to see if they are meeting grade level expectations.

- ACCESS – for ESOL students going on now and continuing into the Spring.
- -Protocols for 3rd grade testing on campus
  - eLearning students have to take the assessments on campus for iReady and potential 3rd grade good cause promotion.
- Black History Month Drive Through Event 2/25/21 5:00-5:30PM
  - Ms. Garcia, multi-cultural coordinator, works with a team
  - Drive through event due to COVID protocols.
- School wide Reading Challenge- Kiss a Pig
  - School representative will have to kiss a pig if their grade level team loses the challenge for percentage of lessons passed and minutes on task.
- Ideas/Support for Staff Appreciation in May
  - Mrs. Delk would like people to start to think about ideas and try to make community connections in order to recognize Blackburn staff.
  - We have about 90 staff members which includes itinerant staff
- Additional Comment
  - Mrs. Delk - At any point, if there is something that you would like done differently, please reach out to us by phone call or email.
  - Dr. Jefferson – We appreciate all of the input that we receive from students in addition to the parents. SEL survey will be happening again now through 2/26. Information is looked at by Dr. J and she follows up.
